Wine Bar & Kitchen Wines of the Week

White

Savennières (Chenin Blanc), Château Varennes, Loire Valley, France, 2006 39.

Made of 100% Chenin Blanc. Savennières age well and can be long lived. The bouquet denotes flower aromas, ripe fruit and spices. Suave and fresh start of great intensity. Hints of hazelnut and apricot. Great finesse and minerality. Roasted Monkfish, Chicken Under a Brick

Verdejo Old Vines, Bodegas Shaya, Rueda, Spain, 2008 37.

The fruit is sourced from low yielding vines whose average age is between 75 to 112 years. Intensely perfumed bouquet of lime, lemon, mint and ginger. Bracing and sharply focused, offering pure citrus and green apple flavors complemented by herbs and spices. Finishes dry and precise. Vibrant acidity keeps this wine lively. An impressive wine from the Rueda region. Sautéed Skate, Sautéed White Shrimp

Müller Thurgau, Cuvée A, Anne Amie Vineyards, Willamette Valley, Oregon, 2008

The vines of this estate grown wine were planted in 1979. Aromas of musk melon, green apples, white flowers. On the palate, star fruit, lemon drops, passion fruit, granny smith apple. Crisp, fresh. Some minerality. Finishes dry.

Red

Morgon, Cru Beaujolais, Château de Pizay, Burgundy, France, 2008 30.

Gamay Grape. Ripe fruit. Cherry, peach, apricot on the nose. Good texture, structure and finish. The Morgon wines have the fruitiness of Beaujolais and the charm of Burgundies. Medium body. Balance. This is a nice wine for the Summer and can be consumed slightly chilled.

Grilled Pork Tenderloin, Grilled Hamburger

Pinot Noir, Emeritus, Russian River Valley, Sonoma County, Ca., 2007 56.

From a part of Russian River Valley that produces some of the most prestigious Pinot Noirs in California. This winery is the new project of Brice Cutrer Jones, the previous owner of Sonoma-Cutrer. The vineyards benefit from very good soil and a southwest location that gives the vines optimum exposure. A cool breeze from the Pacific Ocean and fog at night allow the grapes to ripen with vibrant flavors, sensuous velvety texture and seductive aromas. One of the finest vintages of the decade for this area. Sustainable farming. Long, lingering finish.

Grilled Pork Tenderloin, Roasted Monk Fish

Discover....Discover....Discover....

Syrah, Mirabile, Sicily, Italy, 2005

This wine comes from Sicily's southern coast where the climate, relative to the rest of the country, is fairly mild. Sea breezes enable the grape to retain a desirable level of acidity. Provocative nose, effusive ripe black fruit on the palate, anise, and undertones of spice and minerality. This wine expresses the elegance of the Sicilian land, the freshness of the fruit and its intense array of scents.
